Advia Credit Union Welcomes New Branch Service Manager in Plainwell

Plainwell, MI – Advia Credit Union has announced that Ashley Gilling has been promoted within the company to the position of Branch Service Manager. She will be leading the branch retail team at the 825 M-89 Plainwell, MI Branch as they process transactions and support members' needs.

Gilling has been with Advia for five years as a Financial Solutions Specialist. Now, as a manager, "I plan to lead my team through example; if we continue to work together with open communication, success is in our future," said Gilling.

As Branch Service Manager, her primary focus will be to oversee the service aspect of the business through managing the Tellers. While also continuing the development behind the Teller line, she will strive to provide the best member service and support to serve our members' financial needs.
