Advia Credit Union Welcomes New Treasury Management Officer

Port Huron, MI – Advia Credit Union has announced that Brad Cyplik has recently been promoted to Treasury Management Officer in the northeast Michigan region. Brad will be housed in the Port Huron Branch, but will be helping to grow businesses in the community throughout the whole region.

Brad has over 10 years of experience in the credit union industry working for both small and large community-based credit unions. His previous role at Advia Credit Union as Branch Relationship Officer serving the Port Huron area has given him extensive knowledge of the area and the business members Advia serves every day. In his new role as a Treasury Management Officer, Brad will work exclusively with business owners, non-profits, and municipalities in Michigan.

"I strive to develop a relationship with each of my business members, built on mutual trust and understanding. I believe business owners need their banking experience to be convenient, so they can focus on what they do best which is running their business. Once I've uncovered the needs that are unique to their business, I will offer solutions to overcome challenges faced and advocate for my members," says Brad Cyplik.

For the last 5 years, Brad has served as Chairperson for the Metro East Chapter of the Michigan Credit Unions Programs and Events Committee. He enjoys volunteering at the Salvation Army, coaching youth football, and helping out wherever needed with youth little league.

"To stay in touch with my members and local economy, I start my work week by meeting with a group of small business owners and field specialists at a local diner every Monday morning. This gives me a unique perspective that makes me particularly effective at offering financial solutions to meet the changing needs of the business members I work with," continues Cyplik.
