Advia Credit Union Welcomes New Assistant Branch Service Manager

Cary, IL – Advia Credit Union has announced that Kaitlyn Alvarez has joined the company as the Assistant Branch Service Manager. Alvarez will be assisting with leading the branch retail team at the 650 Northwest Highway Cary, IL Branch as they provide members with financial solutions that help to achieve their financial goals.

“In my role as an Assistant Branch Service Manager, my number one goal is to support and develop my team so that we may together grow the Advia presence in our surrounding communities,” said Alvarez. “My position will allow me to work alongside a wonderful team, offering assistance to our membership through financial wellness by offering real advantages to real people.”

Previously the Assistant Branch Manager at Woodforest National Bank, she has been in the banking industry for three years. In that time, she was recognized as a top producer within her district several times, and her branch was awarded with the “Branch of the Quarter” award five times.
