Advia Credit Union Welcomes New Assistant Manager of Records

Parchment, MI – Advia Credit Union has announced that Sarah Rousch was promoted within the company to Assistant Manager of Records. Rousch will be leading the Records team throughout the company as they manage internal record keeping and audit support.

Rousch has been with Advia for six years, starting as a Teller, then as a Member Service Specialist, and her most recent role as an Accounting Specialist. She has an Associate Degree in Business and Accounting and is working on a Bachelor's Degree in Applied Workplace Leadership at Northern Michigan University.

In this new role, Rousch will oversee the Records Specialists' day to day job performance and provide coaching and training tailored to assist in their development at Advia Credit Union. She will also assist Advia's BSA Officer on maintaining and updating their current BSA program, as well as provide support for external audits to ensure program compliance.

"As a first-time manager, I am eager to learn and build upon my skillset as a leader," said Rousch. "Building relationships and developing individuals is what fills my bucket, and I am honored to have the opportunity to do so at a greater capacity in this role."
